

JAPAN ANTI-CORRUPTION FORUM

THOMSON REUTERS™

DATE: 19 NOVEMBER 2014

LOCATION: HOTEL OKURA TOKYO,
2-10-4 TORANOMON MINATO-KU TOKYO

With an increasingly complex regulatory and enforcement environment impacting corporations worldwide, Asian Legal Business is pleased to present a timely full-day conference "ALB Japan Anti-Corruption Forum 2014". Continuous assessments and disciplined improvements are the lifeblood of an effective anti-corruption compliance program. We invite you to join senior in-house legal counsel, compliance professionals and directors from both Japanese and international companies to learn how to:

- Integrate the compliance role within business strategy
- Implement and review internal efficiencies to avoid high-risk actions that could jeopardize your business
- Raise awareness of activities that may have legal implications – learn how to deal with rogue operators within the company
- Negate reputational risks associated with corruption investigations
- Establish core values & ethics and driving the compliance process
- Understand the role of in-house counsel in decreasing the vulnerability to fraud and corruption
- Manage bribery investigations for businesses working across multiple jurisdictions
- Stay abreast of changes in the law in Japan and in the regions that may affect your company/subsidiaries
- Conducting comprehensive anti-corruption risk assessments to identify potential risks:

This conference is a must-attend for representatives of legal, risk or compliance teams in Japanese or international companies, who need to know how to implement appropriate training internally, how to establish safeguards to negate potential corruption risks and be aware of what to do in the case of a regulatory investigation. Detailed case studies at the event include:

- Understanding the scope of key international legislation (FCPA, UK Anti-Bribery Act) as it relates to business in Japan in 2015 - has your exposure to risk changed?
- Creating, implementing and driving a watertight anti-corruption strategy
- Legal, ethical and business challenges for local and global operations
- How due diligence can be enhanced with third party contracts, M&A and joint venture activities, and the hiring of new staff
- Understanding the steps to take when an investigation occurs; what information you need to provide and the practical steps to do so
- The pros and cons of combined versus separate legal and compliance functions, and what each can bring to a comprehensive anti-corruption strategy
